

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

The STAAR MASTER® Learning Recovery Pathway’s blend of in-person and online professional development, along with job-embedded coaching, is designed to implement instructional strategies for learning recovery and increase student engagement. Educators will experience a holistic approach to personalized learning, standards prep, and social-emotional learning in inclusive classrooms.

Online Professional Development for School and District Staff

On demand courses include:

- » Getting Started: Leveraging a Personalized Model to Address Learning Loss
- » Implementation Strategies for Personalized Learning and Learning Loss Recovery
- » Using Formative and Summative Assessments and Data to Identify Learning Loss and Provide Personalized Supports
- » Supporting Students Social-Emotional (SEL) Needs and Strengthening Executive Functioning Skills
- » Return from Remote: Trauma-Informed Practices to Help Students Deal with Anxiety, Stress, and Depression

Job-embedded Coaching

- » 1:1, up to 4 teachers per campus
- » Recurring, monthly or bi-monthly
- » Grounded in day-to-day teaching practice
- » Classroom-based, integrated into the workday
- » Designed to enhance teachers’ content-specific instructional practices

Elementary School Modules

- » Best Practices for Learning Loss Recovery in the Early Grades: Approaches and Strategies Using STAAR MASTER® eBooks
- » Power Groups for Success: How to Engage All Learners in Small-Group Instruction in the Elementary School Grades
- » STAAR MASTER® Is the Radar, You Are the Guide: Launching Your Elementary School Students in the Right Direction

Middle School Modules

- » Best Practices for Learning Loss Recovery in the Middle Grades: Approaches and Strategies Using STAAR MASTER® eBooks
- » Personalized Instruction and Learner Diversity: How to Include All Learners in Small-Group Instruction in the Middle School Grades
- » Launch Your Middle School Students into Success: STAAR MASTER® Is the Radar, You Are the Guide